a cash deposit under paragraph (e) of this section;

- (iii) The final results of a review under this paragraph (k) will not be the basis for the assessment of countervailing duties; and
- (iv) The Secretary may exclude from the countervailing duty order in question any exporter for which the Secretary determines an individual net countervailable subsidy rate of zero or de minimis (see §351.204(e)(1)), provided that the Secretary has verified the information on which the exclusion is based.

§ 351.215 Expedited antidumping review and security in lieu of estimated duty under section 736(c) of the Act.

- (a) Introduction. Exporters and producers individually examined in an investigation normally cannot obtain a review of entries until an administrative review is requested. In addition, when an antidumping order is published, importers normally must begin to make a cash deposit of estimated antidumping duties upon the entry of subject merchandise. Section 736(c), however, establishes a special procedure under which exporters or producers may request an expedited review, and bonds, rather than cash deposits, may continue to be posted for a limited period of time if several criteria are satisfied. This section contains rules regarding requests for expedited antidumping reviews and the procedures applicable to such reviews.
- (b) In general. If the Secretary determines that the criteria of section 736(c)(1) of the Act are satisfied, the Secretary:
- (1) May permit, for not more than 90 days after the date of publication of an antidumping order, the posting of a bond or other security instead of the deposit of estimated antidumping duties required under section 736(a)(3) of the Act; and
- (2) Will initiate an expedited antidumping review. Before making such a

- determination, the Secretary will make business proprietary information available, and will provide interested parties with an opportunity to file written comments, in accordance with section 736(c)(4) of the Act.
- (c) Procedures. The Secretary will conduct an expedited antidumping review under this section in accordance with §351.221.

§ 351.216 Changed circumstances review under section 751(b) of the Act.

- (a) Introduction. Section 751(b) of the Act provides for what is known as a "changed circumstances" review. This section contains rules regarding requests for changed circumstances reviews and procedures for conducting such reviews.
- (b) Requests for changed circumstances review. At any time, an interested party may request a changed circumstances review, under section 751(b) of the Act, of an order or a suspended investigation. Within 45 days after the date on which a request is filed, the Secretary will determine whether to initiate a changed circumstances review.
- (c) Limitation on changed circumstances review. Unless the Secretary finds that good cause exists, the Secretary will not review a final determination in an investigation (see section 705(a) or section 735(a) of the Act) or a suspended investigation (see section 704 or section 734 of the Act) less than 24 months after the date of publication of notice of the final determination or the suspension of the investigation.
- (d) Procedures. If the Secretary decides that changed circumstances sufficient to warrant a review exist, the Secretary will conduct a changed circumstances review in accordance with $351.221.
- (e) Time limits. The Secretary will issue final results of review (see §351.221(b)(5)) within 270 days after the date on which the changed circumstances review is initiated, or within 45 days if all parties to the proceeding agree to the outcome of the review.
